Kensington October 19.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Lieutenants, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Radnor, at the General Quarter-Seſſions held at Preſteigne for the ſaid County, on Monday in Day of October, in the Sixth Year of Her Reign, of Great Britain, &c. Preſented to Her Majeſty by their Repreſentative in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of Gracious Sovereign,

WE OUR moſt to mention thoſe glorious Succeſſes abroad, wherewith Your Majeſty hath pleaſed the Almighty God to crown the few Years of Your Majeſty's happy Reign, permit us (moſt Gracious Sovereign) to addreſs Your Majeſty upon Two moſt important Articles, the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, and upon Your Majeſty's being the Firſt Monarch in this Iſland who hath appeared at the Head of a Parliament of Great Britain. This (Madam) will add a greater Luſtre to Your Fame in all Generations to come, than even reducing the Exorbitant Power of France. The Uniting of Wales to England by Act of Parliament, is juſtly accounted one of the greateſt Ornaments of the Reign of a Great King, One of Your Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſors; and we all, eſpecially we of theſe Parts of Your Majeſty's Dominions, do to this Day feel the good Effects of that happy Union. We can wiſh our ſelves, and our Brethren of North Britain, no greater Happineſs than that Your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long, and that their Union with England may be as advantagious to them as ours was to us; and that they would improve it to the ſame Purpoſes that we have done; who have Hearts as full of Duty and Loyalty to Your Majeſty, and of Love and Affection to our Country, as any of Your Majeſty's Subjects.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Turin, Octob. 8. N. S. On the 4th Inſtant his Royal Highneſs received a Courier from Suſa with Advice, That the Fort had ſurrendred: The Gariſon, which was reduced to 321 Soldiers and 30 Officers, were made Priſoners at Diſcretion. Prince Eugene gave Orders, That the Officers Equipage ſhould not be taken from them. On the ſame Day General Reinbender, who commands in Chief the Palatine Forces that are in the Pay of Her Majeſty of Great Britain and the States General, arrived here from Pignerol, and waits for the Arrival of Prince Eugene, to receive his laſt Orders concerning the Diſpoſal of thoſe Troops, which are at preſent in an Uncertainty whether they ſhall ſerve under his Royal Highneſs, or in Spain. The Regiment of Boneſana is on the March to Final, in order to be tranſported to Catalonia. On the 6th 4 Troops of his Royal Highneſs's Horſe-Guards arrived here; and the reſt of his Horſe and Dragoons have marched through this Place to their Winter Quarters. The ſame Day the Gariſon of Suſa was conducted into this City, where it is believed they will remain till they are exchanged. Yeſterday Prince Eugene, accompanied by his Nephews, Prince Emanuel and Prince Maurice, came hither from Suſa, and immediately went to the Vineyard of the Dutcheſs Conſort, to wait upon their Royal Highneſſes; from whence he will return in few Days to Suſa, and give the neceſſary Orders there. The Marquis de Carail, Governor of this City, has preſented the Governor of Suſa to their Royal Highneſſes, by whom he was received very graciouſly: At which Time the Duke thought fit to acknowledge to him the kind Treatment he had always given his Highneſs's Subjects who traded between this Place and Savoy.

Milan, Octob. 11. The Marquis Viſconti, who went to concert ſome Affairs with Prince Eugene, is on his Return to this Place, where they are diſpoſing all Things for the Winter Quarters of the Imperial Forces. Five and twenty Regiments of Horſe have begun their March to the Mantuan and Ferrareze. On the 9th Inſtant a Courier from Count Thaun arrived, with the News, That the Imperialiſts, on the 30th of the laſt Month, had made a general Aſſault upon Gaeta, with ſuch Succeſs, that they became Maſters of the Place, and put all to the Sword whom they found in the Town. The Duke of Eſcalona, with the Neapolitan Lords who had followed his Fortune, as well as ſeveral Officers and Soldiers, retired into the Citadel, where they were all made Priſoners of War; and the Troops met with a great Quantity of valuable Plunder. The Beſiegers loſt 300 Men in the Attack; and General Vaubonne was dangerouſly wounded. We have ſung Te Deum, and fired all our Artillery, on this extraordinary Succeſs.

Neufchatel, Octob. 14. The French Competitors, notwithſtanding their Proteſt, and Departure thereupon, ſtop'd at Pontarlier, about 10 Leagues off; and being encourag'd by their Party here, ſollicited the French Court ſo earneſtly to interpoſe in their Behalf, that they have at laſt procur'd Orders to Monſieur de Puiſieux, the French Ambaſſador, to make very vigorous and lively Repreſentations to the Three States here. Accordingly two Days ago he ſent his Secretary hither with a Memorial to them, wherein, having tax'd them very freely with Injuſtice and Partiality in their Proceedings, he demands of them Three Points, and, unleſs they are granted, threatens them not only with an Interdiction of Commerce, but even with War it ſelf. The Three Points are, 1. That a Delay be granted ſufficient to give the French Competitors Time to return hither, and purſue their Claims. 2. That the Pretenders Claims be judged ſeparately by a particular Sentence for each, and not jointly and by one ſingle Sentence for all. And, 3. That they abſolutely chuſe one of the French for their Prince. This Memorial was read by the Three States, who, after ſome Debate thereupon, declared, They could not change any thing in their former Sentences. However Monſieur de Puiſieux is not diſcouraged by this Refuſal; but hath ſent Word, he will come hither himſelf on the 16th, the Day before the Tribunal meets, in hopes by his Preſence and Threats to make them change their Reſolution; ſo that we are like to be in a great Ferment for ſome Days. In the mean time the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter uſes all poſſible Means to encourage and fortify his Friends in their Reſolution againſt any Delays; the Succeſs of which a few Days will ſhew.

Potſdam, Octob. 15. On Sunday laſt the King commanded Monſieur Briou, Captain of one of his Majeſty's Troops of Guards, to take Monſieur Hamroth, Privy Councellor, and Maſter of Requeſts, into Arreſt, and convey him to Spandaw; which was immediately executed. The Diſgrace of that Miniſter is principally attributed to his ſuppreſſing Petitions to his Majeſty, and interrupting the Way to his Royal Favour by indirect Arts. Letters from Warſaw adviſe, That Prince Menzikoff having wanted Intelligence of the March of the Swedes for the Space of 4 Days, ſent Orders to Colonel Schultz to bring in ſome Swediſh Priſoners, at the Hazard of his Head: Upon which the Colonel advanced, and attacked the Vanguard of the Swedes, who were already arrived at Kaliſh; in which Action he killed 10 Men, and took 4 Priſoners: After which he joined General Hensky near Sobula. Theſe Letters add, That General Rhinſchild was at Kaliſh with 4000 Men; and having left General Meyerfeldt in the Place, had paſſed the Wirla, with Deſign to cut off the Retreat of General Henski; who receiving Advice of it, had retired to Lowitz. 'Tis ſaid, the Czariſh Majeſty is at Wilda, and makes all poſſible Preparations againſt the Approach of General Lewenhaupt.

Duſſeldorp, Octob. 18. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough left the Army on the 15th in the Morning, lay that Night at Liere, the next at Graye, and the following at Weſel, from whence his Grace arrived here
